Direct Debit - your questions answered

If you're paying by Direct Debit please keep this page for your records

Consumer Credit Act

You can arrange to pay for your insurance premium by instalment(s) by completing the Direct Debit Instruction. If you're a consumer, then we'll issue you with the documents you need to comply with the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

The information below tells you how paying by Direct Debit works. Please read this before deciding if you want to take this option.

How do I pay by Direct Debit?

Please complete the enclosed Direct Debit Instruction. We'll send your account details to your bank or building society to be validated and arrange for payments to be debited at agreed intervals. If we need to alter your payments, we'll write to tell you this, before we debit your account. If you've got more than one policy your account will be debited separately for each policy. While you have the option to pay by instalment(s), your policy is annual and not monthly.

Who is eligible?

You must be 18 years or older and have a bank or building society current account. Bank/building societies may not accept instructions to pay Direct Debits from some types of account, please check with them if you're not sure. We can only accept Direct Debit Instructions from the policyholder. If you're under 18, we can accept Direct Debits from your parents' account until you reach 18.

How does paying by Direct Debit work?

Paying by Direct Debit lets you spread the cost of your insurance over an agreed number of instalments rather than paying for it in one go. The premium and handling charge will be divided equally over the instalments. Please make sure you've got enough in your account to cover the Direct Debits. If you don't have enough, you may be liable for charges from your bank or building society, for which we can't be held responsible. The cost for paying by Direct Debit depends on the number of instalments you choose:

- 1 instalment. No charge.
- 5 instalments. No charge.
- 10 instalments. No charge.
- 12 instalments. No charge.

Important Information

Methodist Insurance plc may use the information you provide in your application to search the files of a credit reference agency and the result of that search will be recorded in your file whether or not your application is accepted. Further, Methodist Insurance plc may supply details of how you have performed in meeting your obligations under the agreement to a credit reference agency and such information will be made available to other persons or organisations using the services of a credit reference agency.

Direct Debit is only available when you first take out your insurance or when you renew your policy. You can't change to Direct Debit if you've already started to pay in a different way.

What happens if I need to alter my policy?

If you make any changes to your policy during the year that makes your premium, more or less, then we'll need to adjust your remaining monthly instalment(s). We'll contact you to let you know the new amount.

What happens if I cancel the credit agreement?

You have the right to cancel your credit agreement within 14 days of receiving a copy of the agreement or part way through your cover. If you do cancel your credit agreement but want your policy cover to continue, you'll need to pay the remaining balance immediately.

What happens if I apply late?

So we can process your application, please contact us with your account details as soon as possible. Your first instalment is due as soon as your policy starts, or on the renewal date if you've already got a policy with us. If you don't send us your account details straight away, we may need to collect more on your first instalment or paying by instalments may not even be possible.

What happens at renewal?

When your insurance is due for renewal your Direct Debit will automatically continue unless you have chosen to opt-out of auto-renewal. We'll advise you of any change of amount and continue to apply to your bank or building society for the amount due. If you want to stop your cover and cancel your Direct Debit, please contact us, and your bank or building society, to let us know before the renewal date and the first instalment becomes due.

What happens if I make a claim on the policy?

If you make a claim on your policy and what's insured is beyond recovery, we'll deduct the remaining balance of your premium from your claims payment. If what's insured can be repaired, we'll make your claims payment and continue to collect your instalments.

What happens if I miss an instalment?

If you miss a payment, we'll request payment again from your account after 14 days. If this request fails, we'll contact you and ask you to resolve this. If you can't make the payment, your policy will be cancelled and a charge made for any cover provided up to the date of cancellation. This would leave you without the protection of the insurance cover. And it may also make it harder for you to get credit in the future.

EXPLANATORY NOTE: NOT FORMING PART OF YOUR POLICY.

When property insurance policies were developed computer and cyber risks were rare or did not exist; therefore no specific exclusionary language was necessary at that time. As computer technology has evolved, allied with the growth of the internet and connectivity, exposure to cyber events has increased significantly. As cyber risks have not been insured by standard property insurances, premiums have never included such cyber risks. To cater for these new risks specific Cyber insurance covers (via a specific policy or section within a policy) have been developed, which may be purchased separately.

Following improved clarity and contract certainty in the reinsurance market as regards cyber risks, we are providing similar clarification under your policy through the following clause (which does form part of your policy).

ENDORSEMENT FORMING PART OF YOUR POLICY.

Glossary

Estimated

Estimated figures allow us to provisionally assess the premium we require. When the policy is renewed, you should tell us the actual figure so that we may make the necessary additional premium charge or refund and create a new estimate for the year ahead.

Day one items declared value

The declared value is the cost of rebuilding or replacing the property on the first day of the period of insurance. The policy schedule shows the value you have given us.

The declared value does not allow for future inflation.

The sum insured shows the declared value increased by the percentage amount you have chosen as protection against inflation during the time it would take to rebuild or replace the property.

First loss items

First Loss items are those where a total loss is not expected. The amount we have agreed with you as the maximum likely loss following any one occurrence is shown under the sum insured. The full value represents the full reinstatement value.

Declaration-linked basis

The declaration-linked basis is a way of providing inflation protection for your sums insured. The premium and the sum insured are based on the estimates you have provided.
